

Date: Thursday, April 18, 2019

In response to the legislated environmental directives being instituted throughout the world, Powerbox, hereinafter named the Company, has established a processes and policies that is intended to promote product compliance with laws and directives. One notable directive is RoHS (Restriction of the use of certain Hazardous Substances). The RoHS legislation restricts the use of certain hazardous substances to levels of less than 100-1000 ppm used in electronic products.

- Mercury
- Lead
- Polybrominated Biphenyls (PBB)
- Hexavalent Chromium
- Cadmium
- Polybrominated Diphenyl Ethers (PBDE)
- Bis (2-Ethylhexyl) phthalate (DEHP)
- Benzyl butyl phthalate (BBP)
- Dibutyl phthalate (DBP)
- Diisobutyl phthalate (DIBP)

All products supplied by the company, meets to the best of our knowledgte, the 2015/863/EU directive, where and when the directive demands.

Powerbox strives to remain compliant with regulatory requirements through an ongoing review of raw materials, processes, and vendor evaluations.

Part-specific RoHS information, including a RoHS Certificate of Compliance can be dispatched by your local Powerbox contact.

POWERBOX INTERNATIONAL AB

Martin Sjöstrand
CEO